PORT DOUGLAS, August 10th, 1860. Editor British Colonist.—Sir, permit me to call your attention, without incurring the imputation of impertinence, to an article in your issue of the 3rd inst., in which you state that two letters had come to hand from the imputation of imperimence, to an article in your issue of the 3rd inst., in which you state that two letters had come to hand from this place, for publication in your journal, containing "heavy charges" against the resident magistrate and a deputy sheriff.

Sir, both of these gentlemen have a host of warm frience throughout the colony, and I am free to confess, that in "our midst' they can count upon a few, a very few personal enemies also. But this will not surprise any one who is at all acquainted with the duties which gentlemen in their position are sometimes called upon to falfill. Upon having their attention directed to the paragraph in question, the residents of this town with but few exceptions, loudly expressed their sympathy for the gentlemen thus foully calumniated, and their deep disgust for the men who could thus slanderously and malignantly seek to blast the reputation of two upright and honorable public servants; whose characters for efficiency are proverbial throughout the colony. This is a small community, but I am sorry to say we have amoust us a few scandal mongers—evil disposed bipeds, whose sole pleasure seems to arise from the consciousness of their doing all the mischief in their power.

At an indignation meeting, which was held at the house of one of our most respected townsmen, resolutions were passed highly complimentary to the officials complained of in the letters addressed to the Colonist, and a correspondence ensued between the meeting and Mr. Gaggin, which is enclosed, and which, I make no doubt, after the good old English fashion of fair play and no favor, you will be good enough to find a place for in your earliest number, so that the reputation of the gentlemen referred to will be clear to all. I am, sir, respectfully yours,

Religious Excitement.

In regard to the recent excitement grow-ing out of religious matters in Maitland, Australia, the Wesleyan Record says:

ing out of religious matters in Maitland, Australia, the Wesleyan Record says:

The assault on Rev. Wm. McIntyre and his brother Donald took place March 29th, at the Scot's Free Church. The former had advertised to give a lecture that evening upon the "Heathenism of Popery," but the enemies of Protestantism assembled from the country parts of the surrounding district, and stationed themselves about the church to take observations. They were informed by one of the trustees that they were intruding on private property, to which they replied with threats only. At 6 p. M., while the two McIntyres were going from a high school to the church, they were beset by a mob who struck them both, and shockingly beat the brother Donald. The rabble had now inscreased to several hundreds, but the police had also arrived, and secured the Rev. Wm. McIntyre's carriage, as also the person of the occupant. The crowd subsequently attacked the residences of persons hostile to their religion, and at one of them a Mrs. Warland was severely injured by a missile thrown through a window.

The occasion of this outbreak is traceable to the exciting language used by Dean Lynch at his church against the Rev. Wm. McIntyre, because at a public meeting for the abolition of State aid to religion, he said "many Protestants looked upon Popery as little better than a baptized heathenism."

In his Sabbath harangue, he challenged the Rev. Mr. McIntyre to prove this. The latter thereupon advertised a picture on the debatable point. This doubly incensed them, and the Dean related the most inflammable stories in his church, telling his people that the Liverpool Protestants were about to burn an effigy of the Virgin Mary, and took sticks to burn the effigy; but the Irish Catholics were united, and brought sticks too, but for another purpose.

A placard, furthermore, was posted inside the Dean's church door, with the words: "Irish Catholics—every man is expected to do his duty on Thursday night." The press is blamed by the correspondent of the Record, who complains of their unfairness.

Tuesday Morning, August 14, 1860.

Esquimalt Election.

The election at Esquimalt came off on Saturday, and resulted in the return of Mr-Gordon the government nominee, and in the defeat of Mr. De Cosmos, the Liberal candate. The Sheriff announced the state of the poll to be:

Gordon,..... Smith, commonly known as De Cosmos, 10

De Cosmos, 1
Although there were only two candidates in the field, by the Sheriff's return there appears to be three. This occurred through voter giving the name of De Cosmos instead of Smith, first; and although he immediately corrected the mistake before the entry was perfected, the Sheriff refused to make the correction. There can be no doubt but that the correction ought to have been made. The Sheriff either thought differ--at least he acted differently in refusing the alteration, and the consequence was, that instead of a tie vote, Mr. Gordon had one majority. The law is so clearly in favor of rectifying the mistake, if any at all that it has caused very unfavorable ments on the Sheriff's conduct. But in relation to that matter, we learn, that a thorough investigation will be instituted; and if justice cannot be had here, the question will be laid before the law authorities of the Crown in England. Immediately on the close of the poll a protest was signed by the electors and given to the Sheriff, pro testing against the election, the return, and against Mr. Gordon taking his seat.

As soon as the announcement of the result was made, groans were given for the Sheriff; three dismal groans for Gordon; and three hearty cheers for De Cosmos The government supporters and the government candidate slunk away from public gaze, apparently ashamed of the dishonorvictory which they had achieved.

It is usual to expect at elections a strong ebullition of popular feeling, particularly on the part of the defeated, even when the elections are conducted fairly and with strict justice to all parties. The high-handed proceedings, however, on the part of the government party at Esquimalt, gave ample opportunity for public feeling to express itself in unmeasured terms; and the unscrupulous actors did not escape public execration. The conduct of high authorities were so much at variance with custom, with law, and with justice, that an intense feeling of indignation pervades all classes of the community. With one voice they cry "Shame! shame! How long shall such iniquitous proceedings go unwhipt of justice? How long shall we allow an unscrupulous party to lord it over free-born Englishmen as they would over base-born slaves?"

The silence maintained since the election evidently shows that the Obstructives are ashamed of the victory, and fear the consequences; for they must know that a day of retribution is at hand. We have no hesita tion in saying that the election on Saturday has caused a greater revulsion in public feeling than any outrage committed by the government party during the last two years In fact we predict that the result will be their certain overthrow; whilst the Reform party, with strengthened forces, embracing all the wealth, the intelligence, the inde pendence, and the bone and sinew of the country, will deal heavier blows than have ever yet been struck in this colony for the rights of Englishmen, thus rendering Saturday last a day ever memorable in our history. The shameful result of the Victor ria election having culminated in that of Esquimalt, we would be unworthy the proud name of freemen and Englishmen, did we not resent the encroachments on our rights, and teach the actors that henceforth they will not be allowed to provoke public indignation with impunity.

Among other singular things that occurred at the Esquimalt election, we must instance one: On nomination day the Sheriff agreed to have a poll clerk; but at the election he acted in that capacity as well as returning officer. Had there been a clerk it is fair to presume that Moore's vote would not have been refused in the manner it was. But the great wrong of the day was, confining the election to a list made for last year. There is no doubt about the registration law being only made for last year. It was so asserted in the Assembly when passed. The letter and spirit of the act in specific words states that it was only to be used at any election that may take place in 1859. And yet the Sheriff refused to receive any voter except on the list made for 1859, and thus extended to 1860, and to elections ordered in 1860, the provisions of an act that were null and void when the last elections ordered in 1859 were over; and consequently many legal votes prevented from being cast though ten-Who is responsible for this, whether the Sheriff or the legal adviser of the Crown we cannot say. But it is so rank a violation of our rights, and tends so directly to sap the foundations of our liberties, that it deserves the most searching investigation

Another pitiable sight was the Harbormaster. He was conducted into Esquimalt between two high officials, like a criminal between his guards. Although he had often affirmed that he had no vote through having sold his property, yet he was, apparently against his will, forced to vote—even to swallow the oaths-whilst two prominent government officers stood at his back urging him on. His name was on the list made for 1859, not for 1860; and as his vote was necessary for the success of the government candidate, vote he must, right or wrong; and vote he did. We leave him to public opinion, to reward or punish, as it sees fit.

Case after case, as strongly marked as those cited, could be multiplied to show the strenuous exertions made to defeat the liberal candidate. Enough has been shown, however, to satisfy the most skeptical that a great wrong has been done; and although apparently a victory for the government party has been gained, yet it is actually a greater moral victory for Reformers and reform principles, than has ever before been gained over the enemies of constitutional liberty in the colony.

RETURNING THANKS .- Mr. Gordon is out in a circular of thanks and pledges to the electors of Esquimalt for re-electing him. His reason for pursuing so novel a course we give in his own words, viz.: "Gentle-men, owing to the confusion at the close of this day's poll, I was unable to thank you for the honor conferred upon me, in again returning me as your representative to the House of Assembly." We failed to observe the confusion which is adverted to, for a more orderly people we never saw. three groans given to Mr. Gordon are what he calls confusion, then we can understand him. But we presume the true reason was that he was ashamed to face the electors and people. Mr. De Cosmos was heard respectfully at the close of the poll; and so would Mr. Gordon, had he possessed any of those manly qualities that Englishmen expect in their representatives. Returning thanks, however, to the electors by circular, shows how clearly Mr. Gordon understands the position which he occupies in public estimation; how necessary for him to take the circuitous route of a printing office, two days after the close of the poll, to say what he dare not say face to face SILVER ASSAY .- An inferior specimen of the silver ore, referred to elsewhere as having lately been discovered near Hope, was assayed by Marchand and Co., yesterday, and yielded at the rate of $46 to the ton. A specimen furnished us by Mr. McLaugh lin, will evidently yield over $100 per ton; being far purer, and in comparison with the specimens from the Comstock lead, (Washoe), it was found very similar. Such valuable discoveries lead us to indulge in the hope that further mineral developments will speedily add to our resources and vastly to our population.

FOR FORT SIMPSON .- The Hudson Bay Company's steamer Ofter departed yesterday afternoon for Fort Simpson, taking several passengers and a large assortment of goods, recently from London, ex Grecian. Among the passengers are three missionaries for the Chimsean country, who go up for the purpose of teaching the gospel to that tribel Rev. Mr. Duncan, the well known missionary, accompanies the party with the intention of locating them at various points.

CRUEL .- The prisoners awaiting trial at the Court of Assizes were yesterday without a morsel to eat from seven o'clock in the morning until six at night, they being caged in the old barracks near the court room, until the court adjourned. A few pounds of bread or crackers should be served out to them as a lunch every day they are in attendance upon the court.

SMASH .- A four-wheeled wagon, return ing from the election at Esquimalt on Saturday, was disabled on the road by one of the wheels striking a stone and being smashed to pieces. The occupants performed the rest of the journey on foot.

Again in Limbo .- John Butts, the extowncrier of Victoria, has again fallen into the hands of the Philistines, and will once more adorn the chain-gang with his presence. On Saturday last, Sergt. Weihe and officer Allen arrested the gentleman just as he had sold a keg of tangle-leg whisky to a squaw on Johnson street, near the ravine. Police Judge sent Butts to the chain-gang for three, "moons," where he will have ample opportunity to repent of his manifold sins Butts, when he was sentenced, said it was very hard that he should be used so badly for selling a squaw whisky, when the men who sold it to him, knowing what he wanted it for, were allowed to go scot free. It does look unfair.

MARRIAGE IN HIGH LIFE .- We are informed that a midshipman attached to one of H. M. ships at Esquimalt will shortly lead to the hymeneal altar the lovely and accomplished daughter of a high official o this colony. The marriage, we believe, will take place some day this week, and as soon as consummated, the happy pair will start for "Merrie England." The bridegroom expectant is said to be under age, and an heir in chancery.

COURT OF ASSIZES .- This Court, accordng to adjournment, met at 10 o'clock, on Saturday morning; but, to the utter astonishment of all, Mr. George Hunter Cary, Attorney General, was absent. Chief Justice Cameron adjourned the Court until Monday at 10 o'clock, A. M., and the jurymen, counsel, and witnesses were compelled to return home through a pelting shower of rain. Mr. Cary was away at the Esquimalt election.

THE GRAND JURY .- We understand this body intends giving everything connected with the government of this town a thorough overhauling. Their report will doubtless be very interesting.

We learn that Governor Douglas has consented to lower the duty on Chinese wine; and that a petition is about being presented for a reduction in the duties on English wine-of course the latter will be granted

PRACTICE .- The Union Hook and Ladder Company were out for practice last evening with their truck. They mustered strong, and handled their apparatus with the skill

REGINA VS. LEWIS.
Richard X. Lewis was arraigned on an Richard A. Lewis was arraigned on an indictment charging him with having, on the 25th day of July last, while near Mr. Finlayson's residence, assaulted "Johnson," a Hydah chief, with a deadly weapon, with intent to take life.

intent to take life.

Attorney-General Cary attended for the prosecution, and D. B. Ring and J. F. McCreight, Esqrs., for the defence.

The following evidence was adduced on

The following evidence was adduced on the part of the prosecution:

"Johnson," a Hydah Indian, sworn:
Went to gather berries on the day I was shot, in the woods; met the prisoner there; the prisoner fired at me, and after I got up I saw a cask near; the prisoner said nothing to me before he fired; after he fired he said "don't you go;" prisoner fired at me three times; he only hit me the first time; after I fell down, prisoner struck me on the head with his pistol, and afterwards in the eye with his fist; I had no arms; saw nobody else near; nobody ran away; saw Nishawa, an Indian. a short time after I was shot; Nishawa said nothing.

Cross-examined for the defence—Have got no pistol; have none at my home; never had one; neither fish nor hunt; don't like whisky; after I was shot, I lay some time upon the ground; when I got up, I saw a cask; I get my living from the Indians for nothing; did not see the cask until I got off the ground after I was shot.

Nish-a-wa, a Hydah, sworn—Saw "Johnson" and Lewis in the wood the day the former was shot; saw Lewis shoot three times at "Johnson;" only one ball out of the three shot him; "Johnson" told me that the prisoner had fired three shots at him; was gathering berries at about 15 yards from "Johnson" at the time he was shot; a little clootchman and a boy were a good distance off at the time; saw Lewis shoot "Johnson."

D. B. Ring, Esq., opened the case for the defence, and pointed out serious discrepancies in the evidence of "Johnson," as given to-day and before the Police Judge, some two weeks since.

"Bob," a Chimsean, sworn for the defence,—Know the prisoner; know "Johnson" to; about 8 or 10 days ago saw scuffle between "Johnson" and Lewis; first heard a dispute; wasked around the bush and looked; heard Lewis say in Chinook "give me my pistol—give me my pistol to fire at the prisoner; when he had cocked it, he walked up to Lewis and put it to his head; Lewis struck "Johnson," and the latter an away; prisoner fired two more shots while he was running; I never drink any

Dr. Trimble testified that he had examin ed the arm of "Johnson"; it is impossible that he could have been shot while running away; he must have been shot while underneath.

Sillioste Aime sworn—Am a wholesale grocer; saw the witness "Bob" about half-past 9 o'clock that morning; I spoke to witness opposite my store; told him to come here and give evidence; on last Friday I translated his evidence to Mr. Pearkes; a clootchman first told me "Bob" knew all about the affair; never tampered with or offered bribes to "Bob."

THE BEST NEWS YET! ROCK CREEK A SUCCESS!

From $20 to $100 per day to the hand.

A Silver Mine at Hope!

The Wilson G. Hunt, Captain Welch, arrived from Fraser river on Saturday evening last, bringing very few passengers and $9,000 in gold dust.

From several of the passengers, and from the correspondence published below, we learn that the greatest excitement exists at the various towns on Fraser river, regarding the Rock Creek mines, and the discovery of a silver mine, a short distance above Fort Hope. At first, it was said that the latter is as rich as the Comstock lead in Washoe; but several specimens having been assayed at New Westminster on Saturday, they were found to yield fully from $30 to $45 per ton. These specimens, it is said, however, are not the richest found; the discoverers having wisely concluded to hold back the best "lumps" until a right to work the mines had been secured. The object in assaying the specimens mentioned being to satisfy themselves whether they were silver or not. Arrival of Dunbar's Pony Express from Rock Creek.

NEW WESTMINSTER, Aug. 10, 1860. THE ROCK CREEK MINES.

EDITOR BRITISH COLONIST :- Mr. George Dunbar, Pony Express man connecting with Ballou's Fraser River Express, arrived at Hope in four and one-half days from Rock Creek He left Rock Creek on the 3d inst., and reports about 300 men at work there, making from $5 to $20 per day, and several as high as $100 per day. The miners all seem contented, and feel certain of doing The miners are leaving Canal River for Rock Creek. He met two trains (40 mules) coming from the Dalles with provisions for Rock Creek. It takes 20 days for trains to go from the Dalles to Rock Creek, and 10 days from Hope. Distance from Hope to Rock Creek, 150 miles; from Hope to South Fork of the Similkameen (where to South Fork of the Similkameen (where new diggings are discovered), 70 miles.

Dunbar was delayed half a day, otherwise he could have made the distance in four days with a good horse. The first 18 miles of the trail from Hope is quite bad, owing to mud, and the mules have some trouble, but once over that, the trail is fine the remainder of the distance.

A man can walk to Rock Creek in six days from Hope. Dunbar will leave Hope once over that, the trail is line the remainder of the distance.

A man can walk to Rock Creek in six days from Hope Dunbar will leave Hope again on the arrival of the California mail there. The course from Hope to Rock Creek is nearly east, or a very little south of cast. Freight from the Dalles to Rock Creek, 20c per lb.; from Hope to head waters of Similkameen, 16c per lb.; and from there to Rock Creek, about 4c per lb. No train has yet gone through to the new diggings from Hope, but will, probably, in few days. Two trains left Hope for Similkameen yesterday (9th inst.) Three trains are now at Hope, and will start in a day or two for the same place. Miners can work nearly all the year at Rock Creek. No bar diggings. It is the opinion of old miners that the main diggings of British Columbia and Washington Territory have just been struck at Rock Creek and Similkameen. The gold on the former is all very coarse, requiring no quicksilver.

was a ditch-owner and miner; his reputation was excellent; he was never in any difficulty; I came here last January; have done nothing since I arrived; have no occupation; my means are very limited.

The Judge charged the jury briefly, and that body retired to deliberate; returning in about fifteen minutes with a verdict of "not guilty."

Upon the rendition of the verdict, considerable applause was manifested. Lewis was then discharged from custody.

REGINA VS. ALLACHE.

Allache, a Chimsean Indian, was placed at the bar, charged with having, on the 16th day of July last, stabbed to death a young negro named Thomas Brown, while the latter was visiting the Chimsean lodges. A jury was empanelled, and his honor ordered but staked out their claims and appointed one of their number (Mr. Greenwood), to bring in a number of specimens to have assayed. I talked with him yesterday, and he told me he would not sell his share of this claim for the richest share in Washoe. He has also some of the others with him who have shares in the Washoe Comstock lead now. He has been a miner all his days, has worked in silver mines in Mexico and California, and says he knows silver ore the moment he puts his eye on it. He is very sanguine, and thinks this lead will astonish the world. I have two pieces of the ore which I shall have assayed to-day and let you know the result if I can, in time for the steamer Hunt. Yours truly, Yours truly,

H. LEE ALLEY,
of Ballou's Express. steamer Hunt.

P. S. August 11th.—I have just had the two pieces of ore assayed at the Government office. They yielded $45 per ton. Other specimens have been assayed for other parties, which yielded $30 per ton.

H. L. A.

STR. Col. Moody, New Westminster,

STR. Col. Moddy, New Westminster, August 10th, 1860.

Editor British Colonist:—Enclosed please find specimen of silver ore, obtained this morning from Mr. Whithill, and taken from the Greenwood Lead, about three miles above Fort Hope, and near to Union Bar. You will perceive that this specimen is similar in every respect to the silver ore of the Comstock Lead, in Washoe. The opinion of parties at Fort Hope, who have worked in the Washoe mines, is, that this ore is equally as rich. The lead is about seven feet wide, and has only been prospeted to the depth of three feet. Great excitement prevailed at Hope this morning, and a large number of persons had recorded claims previous to the departure of the steamer. The exciting news brought in yesterday from the Similkameen mines, by Dunbar's Express, was entirely thrown in the shade by this recent discovery made in the vicinity of Fort recent discovery made in the vicinity of Fort Hope. You can use this as you may deem JAMES MCLAUGHLIN.

Letter from Rock Creek.

ROCK CREEK, July 27, 1860. W. H. SUTTON, Esq. Fort Hope: * *

* *-I arrived here on the 24th inst. Plenty of gold here, and coarse at that! Ten miles of the creek is taken up. No claim has yet failed that has been worked. Several are making $20 to $30 per day and eral are making $20 to $30 per day and some more. Cannot buy an interest in some claims for $3,000. Provisions very scarce. Whiskey (as they call it) $6 per gallon. China brandy (no other liquor here) $12 per gallon. Twelve log houses are built and others building; two saloons, one butcher's shop, one hotel, and five stores. About five hundred men on the creek and about two hundred on the river. I bought a claim for $50 to-day. Another town is started half-way up the creek. I would advise all my friends to come out here, plenty of diggings for all; wages are from four to five dollars per day.
